

K-Love offers family friendly programming. I do not have to worry about what my children are listening to. There are enough channels on the radio that have foul language and insinuating comments. I do not want my children listening to this!! Being a tourist town, it is important that we have a radio station that is family friendly to all of our visitors. Please do not replace K-Love with LPFM. Thank You!